The Univeristy of Nebraska Medical Center has a full-time opportunity for an Academic BC / BE Surgeon who is fellowship trained in Trauma / Critical Care located in Omaha, NE!

TRAUMA/CRITICAL CARE SURGEON
The Division of General Surgery at the University of Nebraska Medical Center is accepting applications for an Academic BC/BE General Surgeon who has completed a fellowship in Trauma and is a candidate for or has completed certification in Critical Care. Responsibilities will include clinical care, education and research. Interested candidates should also have a strong interest in teaching residents and medical students.

The Division of General Surgery is one of nine divisions in the Department of Surgery and includes General Surgery, Vascular Surgery, Trauma and Critical Care. Faculty members within the Division provide clinical services at The Nebraska Medical Center Hospital, The Omaha Veteran's Administration Hospital, and Children's Hospital and Medical Center in Omaha. The Nebraska Medical Center is one of three major health care providers in the Omaha area, serving Eastern Nebraska and Western Iowa. The main teaching hospital has a capacity of 421 beds. The General Surgery Residency has four categorical positions at each level.

Level of appointment will be commensurate with qualifications. Applications are now being accepted online at http://jobs.unmc.edu . Individuals from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
