Starting Fresh: Practical Self-Care and Wellness Strategies for the New Year

Tues., Jan. 20 | 12 – 1 p.m. (CST) | Online Only

Kendra Gonzalez, a psychotherapist with the Nebraska Medicine Patient-Centered Medical Home division, will start the new year of brown bags by guiding participants through a reflective process to evaluate their health and wellness from the past year and identify areas for improvement in 2026. Attendees will explore evidence-based, self-care strategies of the interconnected dimensions of overall health (physical, mental, emotional, and social) to reduce stress and promote balance. Audience members will leave with practical tools to set realistic, sustainable goals for the year ahead. This talk is free to attend. Nursing credit is available for $15.

For more information or to register, email the Olson Center at OlsonWHRC@unmc.edu or call (402) 559-6345.
